PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

The defendant shall make monthly restitution payment in the amount of $50 per month until paid in full.

CAUSE

Mr. Logan was initially required by the Court to make restitution payments in the amount of ten percent of his gross monthly income. Since being on supervised release, he has made only two payments totaling $65. Mr. Logan was employed by Haynie Construction Company in Searcy, Arkansas, as a laborer, but was recently terminated. Prior to being terminated, Mr. Logan indicated he was having financial difficulties and was given a Prob 48B Monthly Cash Flow Statement to complete and return. After reviewing this form and speaking to Mr. Logan, it was determined that he was unable to submit the amount of restitution ordered by the Court. On August 16, 2010, Mr. Logan signed the attached Prob 49 waiving his rights to a hearing and agreeing to modify his conditions to reduce his restitution payments
